

READING IS GRAND

Students and parents... READING IS GRAND! It's time to participate in the school wide reading challenge! YOU CAN read 100 books by the end of MARCH! Our school will also be participating in the... SCHOOL WIDE READ. Each chapter of the SCHOOL WIDE READ can be added to your READING IS GRAND challenge. Please read below to get started.

- READING with your child at any age K-3 is highly encouraged and very rewarding!
- Picture books count as 1 book.
- List the title of the book on the forms provided...5 forms/20 books each ... 100 books!
- PLEASE be sure to include a name, grade, teacher AND parent signature on each page!
- Chapter books - each chapter counts as 1 book- OR you can CHALLENGE your child to read and count a chapter book as 1 book... make it work for your family and child!
- The title of a chapter book can be listed then just circle the amount of lines that correlate with the number of chapters... 10 chapters = 10 numbers/books.
- Books that have very short chapters, diary entries, graphic novels, poetry or joke books, etc... PLEASE count 40 pages = 1 book.
- Extra forms can be found on the school website on the library page.
- LOST FORMS- you can print out a new one ^^^ OR just use notebook paper.
- Hand this paper to your teacher or to the library as soon as you have reached the goal!
- Be sure to visit the LIBRARY WEB PAGE- tab is located on the school web page.
- FREE BOOKS- BIG UNIVERSE- an eLibrary, is located on the school web page and contains a great variety of genres to read on the computer. Links on using BIG UNIVERSE can be found on my SCHOOLOGY page.
- READ ALOUDS located on the school web page / LIBRARY tab/ READ ALOUD tab- a library lesson showed the students how to get to this page and open a book.
